A second winner in the St Lucia Electricity Services Limited (LUCELEC) Facebook Promotion has been chosen. She is Sheba Natasha Alphonse who on Monday December 8, 2014 collected her prize of an eight inch Samsung Galaxy tablet.

Alphonse beat out thirty-six (36) others who posted to the LUCELEC Facebook Page their “Moment Beyond Measure” – a time in their life when they truly valued electricity. Her submission was very personal. She was attacked on her way to her home on a dark night.

“I screamed as loud as I could and my neighbours’ lights came on and the individual ran away. They run to my rescue but the person was nowhere in sight. I have never been so happy to have light before,” she explained.

Her post also included the relief she feels from having a streetlight in the exact area where she says electricity “may have just saved my life.”

Two more weeks and three more Samsug Galaxy tablets remain in the LUCELEC campaign in support of the company’s 50th Anniversary.

The promotion is open to anyone who likes the LUCELEC Facebook page, thepowerofcaring. To enter, they must post a picture and a short description of 100 words or less to the page describing why they value electricity.

Winning posts are being selected by a combination of voting “Most Likes” from people who have also liked the LUCELEC Facebook page and judging by a LUCELEC Committee.

All participants can only submit one entry throughout the duration of the promotion.
